1. Read Psalm 110 together.
What does this Psalm teach us about the kind of King the Messiah will be?
2. What does this Psalm teach us about the Messiah's role as a Priest?
3. Does this passage change your perspective of Jesus at all? If so, how?
4. Do you ever struggle to come to Jesus with your sin out of shame or fear of rejection? Do you ever doubt that your sins are really washed away and allow past sins to hold a grip in your mind? How does meditating on this passage help you overcome that?
5. When the story is fully written, Jesus will be on the throne with every enemy under his feet. When Jesus defeats all sin and evil, what problems of our world will be over? What problems or struggles in your own life will be eradicated? What anxieties in your own life does this reality help to ease?
