

December 1, 2024

Luke 1:30-37; 2:8-11, Mark 16:7, Acts 1:11

Content Questions

1. What was the content of the good news brought to the shepherds and why does this content engender hope?
2. In Mark's account of the resurrection, why do you think Peter is singled out?
3. What do we know from the angel's announcement of Jesus' return? (He will return, it will be personal, it will be public)

Application Questions

1. How does the knowledge that nothing is impossible with God change the way you live and give you hope?
2. How does knowing that Peter had denied Christ and yet restored give you hope?
3. Does the knowledge of Jesus's return foster fear or give you hope? Why?

Memory verse: Romans 5:5 "...and hope does not put us to shame, because God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us."