Study Questions

Content Questions

1. How does Paul contrast the natural acts of a self-centered life with the Spirit's life-transforming power?
2. According to v.25, how does the believer let the Spirit shape their conduct?
3. Why are the actions mentioned in v.26 inconsistent with "keeping in step with the Spirit"?

Application Questions

1. Is your life more characterized by the natural productions of the flesh or that of the Spirit?
2. Respond to the following as it relates to v.24: "The believer is not to seek to remove from the cross what has once been nailed there." (v.24 is talking about remembering our initial repentance and continuing to practice repentance)
3. How does one "keep in step with the Spirit"? (Live lives characterized by faith, feed upon the word of God in both personal Bible reading AND the various elements of corporate worship)

Memory verse: "If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit."
