2 Corinthians 3:1-3

1. Do you have any funny or memorable "letter of recommendation" stories?
2. What has been your experience with desiring/idolizing the approval of man?
3. Why is it so important that our love and ministry towards others be an overflow of our love for God?
4. What did Sam mean when he explained that the Christian's impact is more qualitative than quantitative?
5. What was Paul's point in explaining that the Corinthians letter of recommendation was written "not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God?"
6. Why could the miracle of Sinai (Moses receiving the 10 Commandments) not compare to the miracle of salvation (believers receiving Jesus)?
7. Which of these three main qualities of a faithful minister of the Gospel do you see in a new way after Sunday's message?
