

Creek Group Sermon Questions

Was there anything new that you learned from this passage and/or from the teaching?

What does this passage say about the character of God?

What does this passage say about the character of man?

What challenged you, convicted you, and/or encouraged you, from this passage and/or the teaching?

From the passage, was there:

- A command to follow
- A sin to confess
- A prayer to pray
- A promise to hold on to

James 1:23 encourages us to be a 'do-er' of the word and not just a hearer of the word.

How can the members of your Creek Group specifically be praying for you this week to be a 'do-er' of the word, for the purpose of your life being transformed to look more like Jesus' life?

How can the members of your Creek Group be holding you accountable and praying for you this week?
